

LANCELOT

Certificate

This is to certify that

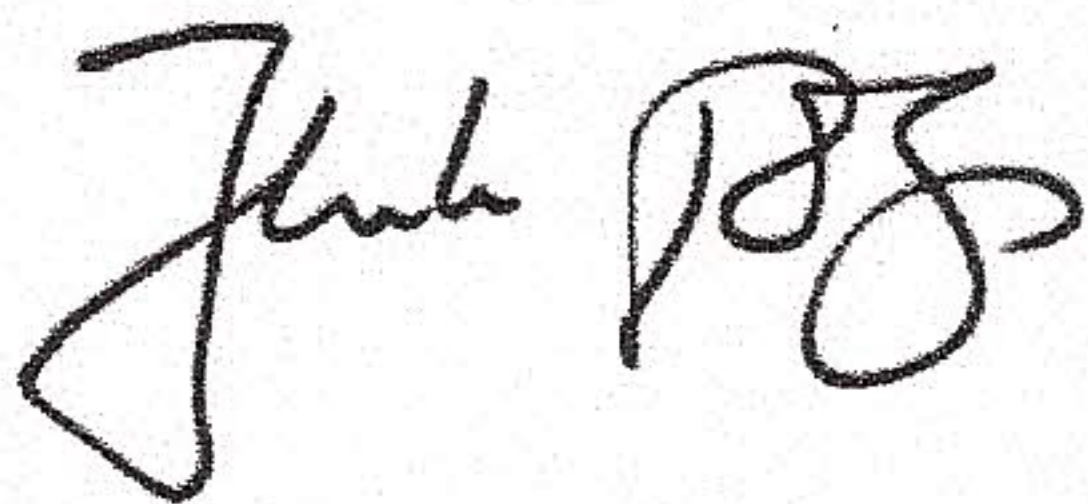

Tatjana Sacherer

has successfully completed an approved LANCELOT training course

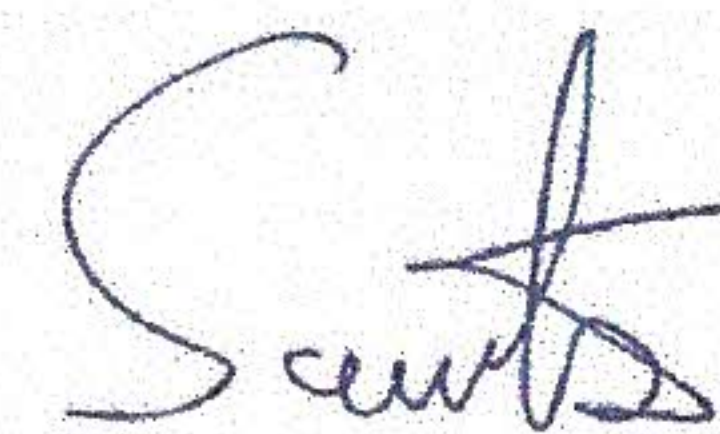

With Distinction
and has been certified as a

LIVE ONLINE TRAINER

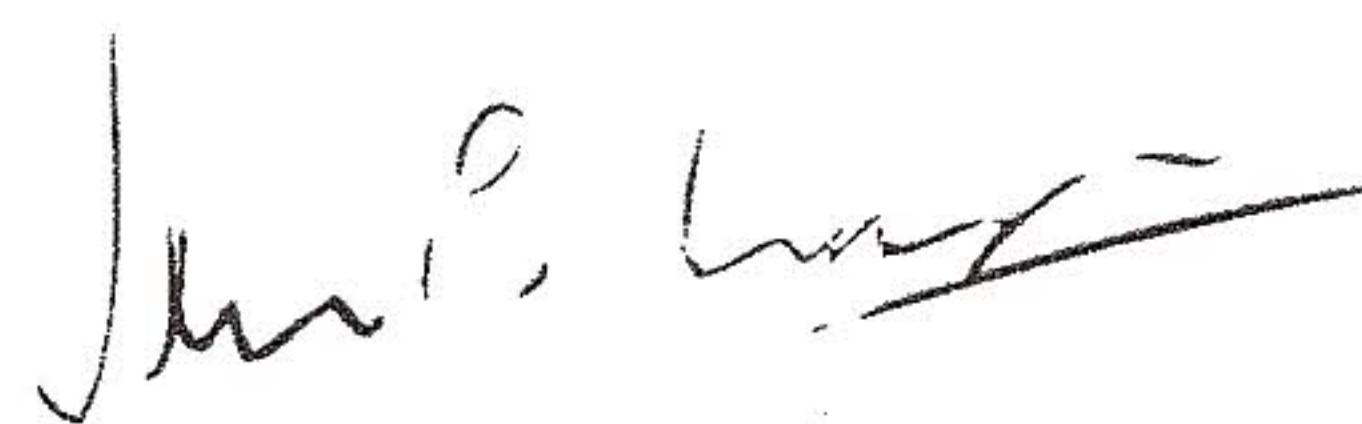

March 2007 – May 2007
online

Training Coordinator

Project Coordinator

ICC President

LANCELOT

LANguage learning with CErtified Live Online Teachers

LANCELOT - LANguage learning with CErtified Live Online Teachers - has been awarded a Certificate of Quality and Best Practice by Quality Assurance Scheme of the International Certificate Conference (ICC), particularly with regard to:

- pedagogical value for trainers and trainees;
- relevance;
- accessibility for non-specialists;
- technical use of new media.

Holders of the LANCELOT Certificate in Live Online Teaching have successfully participated in a training course which conforms to the standards laid down in the LANCELOT Training Course handbook in terms of study time and course contents.

This includes submitting a Development Portfolio containing evidence of key tasks carried out during the course; and being observed live during an online teaching practice session.

Holders of the LANCELOT Certificate have demonstrated the following competencies:

- Understanding and taking the role of the online language teacher;
- Managing the technologies afforded by internet-based synchronous learning environments or tools;
- Using internet-based tools to support effective language teaching and learning;
- Showing a critical awareness of intercultural communicative competence issues in language teaching and learning;
- Reflecting on ways in which their beginning practice as online language teachers may be developed;
- Planning, preparing, and conducting appropriate synchronous online language lessons in a variety of scenarios, with a variety of language learners for a variety of purposes.